Amber Homes Snags Prestigious Bar Awards

October 28, 2005 - AURORA - Amber Homes was honored with two Community Service Awards at the Homes Builders Association of Metro Denver's 27th Annual Bar Awards on Saturday, Oct. 22nd at the Adam's Mark Hotel in Denver. The homebuilder was recognized for two of its community projects: the Miracle on #19th Street and the Full House Celebrity Poker Tournament.

Amber Homes was instrumental in organizing, donating to and staffing the "Miracle" event, which provided baby products, toys, clothes and warm meals for thousands of needy people at the Denver Chop House on Christmas Day. The homebuilder also organized the Full House Celebrity Poker Tournament, in which Avalanche hockey players and other celebrities joined with corporate and individual sponsors in May to raise money for the Adam Foote Foundation. The foundation then distributed funds to breast cancer research, the Denver Children's Advocacy Center, and the Denver Police Athletic League. The success of the poker tournament inspired a 2nd Annual Full House Celebrity Poker Tournament, which will be held at 6 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 7, at the historic 1770 Sherman Street Event Complex.

"An integral part of our company culture is to reach out to those in our community who are less fortunate," said Linda Harmon, who, along with her husband Jim, owns Amber Homes. "Our employees enjoy working for a company that's involved in the community, and it's particularly meaningful to all of us to be recognized for that involvement within our own industry."

The Bar Award is the most prestigious honor awarded to professionals in the home building industry. The Awards recognize excellence in all disciplines and talents instrumental in the design, building, merchandising and selling of new homes, as well as service to the community.
